ILLY CAN TREASURING THE AROMA

£1 off your next purchase of illy coffee in-store

Why doesn't all coffee come in a can? Because not all coffee can. Coffee packed in regular vacuum-sealed bags and cans, allows those vital aromas to escape. But our pressurized packaging traps all those essential oils in allowing them to mingle and round out the taste - so our can actually plays a part in maturing our blend. It also happens to require complete perfection from every single bean - which we ensure, by inspecting each one individually. Discover more: www.illy.com
